

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
June 24, 1996

Contact: Ellen Nash
202-452-9446

Jobs:The Class of 2000 Fact Sheet

SHOW: JOBS:THE CLASS OF 2000 is an up-close, one-hour television special answering a question that effects us all: Can America win the race to fill the high-skill, high-tech and highly competitive jobs of the 21st century?

AIRDATE: Premiering Friday, September 20, 1996 on public television stations nationwide. (Check local listings).

CREDITS: JOBS:THE CLASS OF 2000 is produced by award-winning WQED Pittsburgh. Producer is Mary Rawson; Executive Producer is Jim Rogal; Executive Director of Communications and Community Relations is B.J. Leber; and Executive Director of Production and Distribution is Carolyn Wean.

FUNDING: JOBS:THE CLASS OF 2000 is a project of the Public Television Outreach Alliance's Act Against Violence and is underwritten by the U.S. Departments of Labor and Education and the Ciba Educational Foundation.

SHOW OVERVIEW: JOBS:THE CLASS OF 2000, a PBS Special, takes you on a guided tour of just six of the thousands of U.S. communities offering School To Work opportunities - America's new frontiers in career preparation. The program takes you into the lives of students who are preparing to enter college and the 21st century workforce. You'll also meet educators, labor representatives, business leaders, parents and others who are collaborating through School To Work to help children succeed.

WQED Pittsburgh
2 Fifth Avenue
Pittsburgh, PA 15213
800.876.1316
412.622.6413
<http://www.pbs.org/jobs>

National Education

DEPARTMENT
OF EDUCATION

DEPARTMENT
OF LABOR